A NOTE FROM OUR CHAIRMAN

On behalf of our cast, crew and committee, it is my great pleasure to extend a warm welcome to you all this evening to our lovely new venue here in the Kilternan Golf & Country Club Hotel.

1997 has been a wonderful year for us. Many of you will have joined us last April for our hugely successful sell-out production of "Oliver!" following which we took part in the A.I.M.S. Choral Festival in New Ross. We've enjoyed a great increase in membership which has brought us more local talent and we are delighted that GMDS is continuing to go from strength to strength.

Our play tonight is John B. Keane's hilarious comedy drama "The Chastitute". As always, it has been a team effort with Margaret once again in the Producer's chair and I'd like to thank our great cast and crew and my wonderful committee for their hard work over recent months in bringing you tonight's performance.

So please sit back, relax and enjoy!

TOM ROONEY - An Appreciation

It is with great sadness that I write this evening of the recent untimely death of Tom Rooney, one of our much loved and very talented members, at the early age of 41.

Tom was one of nature's gentlemen - his gentle personality, ready smile and self-deprecating charm won him the affection of all who met him

Whether Tom was on stage with us lending his lovely singing voice to musical productions such as Carousel, My Fair Lady and, just last April, Oliver!, or filling the airwaves of RTE as he expertly brought the exciting moments of a sporting event to life for his many avid listeners, he brought the same enthusiasm, dedication and quest for perfection to the task in hand

Four years ago, Tom, with his quiet characteristic determination, won his fight against a serious illness and returned to the full and happy life that he enjoyed with his wife, Judy and children. Tom and Erin - Sadly, towards the end of this summer, Tom was struck with a recurrence of that illness and, despite his brave and uncomplaining fight, he died on 15th October, as he had lived, surrounded by the love of his family and friends

Everyone loved Tom and his many friends in Glencullen miss him enormously. Tom was very special and to Judy, Tom and Erin, we offer our love and sympathy.
